

Invitation to attend

"My dad had an MI at 45, how worried should I be?"

Coronary Artery Genetics, from Familial Hypercholesterolemia to the Discovery of PCSK9

INVITED SPEAKER

Guillaume Paré, MD, MSc, FRCPC
Associate Professor, McMaster University
Pathology and Molecular Medicine
Clinical Epidemiology & Biostatistics
Canada Research Chair in Genetic and Molecular Epidemiology

DATE

Wednesday
June 22, 2016

LOCATION:

Quatrefoil

16 Sydenham Street
Dundas, ON
Phone: 905.628.7800

TIME: Arrivals: 6:30pm
Talk: 7:00pm

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Review pathophysiology of familial hypercholesterolemia
2. Review diagnosis and treatment of familial hypercholesterolemia
3. Review novel therapeutic agents for inherited and acquired dyslipidemias

AGENDA

TIME

TOPIC

5 minutes Welcome, Review of objectives and Faculty Disclosures

45 minutes Interactive Presentation and Discussion
• Review Selected Objectives

10 minutes Summary
• Interactive Summary
• Program Evaluation

Dinner to follow the presentation

RSVP

To confirm your attendance for the program, please contact
Jon Newkirk, B.Sc. CCPE
Cardio-Renal, Amgen Canada
Cell: (519) 630-3362
Email: jnewkirk@amgen.com